Led by Christine Potter, Director of Global Cornell Initiatives

Operational guidance and tools to support Cornell's international projects and travelers

Please join us for a conversation with the recently-formed “Navigate Global Operations” team—a group of individuals working in the areas of tax, purchasing, legal, human resources, compliance, and real estate—assembled to assess concerns, provide advice, and reduce internal infrastructure barriers for university faculty and staff undertaking international initiatives. They can help advise (or link to appropriate resources) on activities abroad such as in-country personnel, purchasing, or other operational requirements. They'll discuss their work, introduce new legal entities Cornell is establishing overseas, and of course, answer questions and receive feedback. Please check out the navigate.cornell.edu website before attending. You can ask the team a question online any time!

Feel free to send me your questions about international issues that impact research prior to the Roundtable session, so I can provide them to the Navigate Global Operations Team in advance of the Roundtable.

We look forward to seeing you on August 17th!

Christine
