

Cornell University
Office of Sponsored Programs
Form 10 Addendum - NRSA
for National Institutes of Health Ruth L. Kirchstein
National Research Service Award Applications

In accordance with the policy of the National Institutes of Health, Cornell University is required to “secure and retain” a “written assurance” from each “Fellow and Sponsor(s) prior to submitting the application” and must “retain a unique signature and date.”

See <http://grants.nih.gov/grants/guide/notice-files/NOT-OD-09-007.html> for details.

Fellow and Sponsor Assurance

Project Title:

I hereby certify:

- (1) that the information submitted within the application is true, complete and accurate to the best of my knowledge;
- (2) that any false, fictitious or fraudulent statements or claims may subject me to criminal, civil, or administrative penalties;
- (3) that the Sponsor(s) will provide appropriate training, adequate facilities, and supervision if a fellowship is awarded as a result of the application; and
- (4) that the Fellow has read the Ruth L. Kirchstein National Research Service Award Payback Assurance and will abide by the Assurance if an award is made, and that the award will not support residency training.

Furthermore, I am aware of my responsibilities under the NIH Public Access Policy which requires that any peer-reviewed journal articles, accepted for publication on or after April 7, 2008, reporting research supported in whole or in part by NIH funds, will be electronically submitted to the National Library of Medicine’s PubMed Central archive no later than 12 months after publication <http://grants.nih.gov/grants/guide/notice-files/NOT-OD-08-033.html>.
